

The Red-Eye Type

If your gonna go dive, right out of the sky,
And you need to get pumped
Just have a red-eye
If you go skating to get away from the thinking,
Then get fueled up
And get with the drinking
If you're going snow boarding
And you wanna fly high
Stuff the flavored water and have a red eye

"CHORUS"

No matter where you are,
Or what time it is,
There's only one thing that you need by far,
When you're staying up late to finish a level,
Or going out clubbing or hanging at Cavill,
One things for sure, all you needin'
Is a boost of energy now keep on readin',

Red-eye is not just for the most extreme,
It's also for the people wanna sit and dream,
The people who like to wonder about the world,
Sit and read a book, wait what?
Those who do that just aren't red-eye type
They'd rather have some red wine
And smoke there wooden pipe.

"CHORUS"

No matter where you are,
Or what time it is,
There's only one thing that you need by far,
When you're staying up late to finish a level,
Or going out clubbing or hanging at Cavill,
One things for sure, all you needin'
Is a boost of energy now keep on readin',

If you and your girl are looking for fun
And you don't really want to spend a ton
Just grab some red eye, only costs a few
So you can tell your mates how you two flew.
Enjoy the xperience that red eye gives all,
Now get that geezer with the pipe, and play some paintball!
